

I think to do away with the Do Not Call List will be a big mistake. As you are having dinner some nut is calling you to try to sell you something, or you are having a house full of people and they are bothering you. Leave it alone. keep it the way it is. Mr Governor i have alot of respect you and the job you are doing. If you do away with this list I will lose faith in you.

Regards

Bob

Ochab